HINSDALE BRANCH OF A. R. C.

Report of the Chairman of the Nursing Committee

There are many incidents on record of the past year which show the value of the nursing service.

Twelve children have benefited by the tonsil and adenoid clinics.

A pre-school clinic was held May 14, under the State Board of Health, at which the state nurse Miss Leah Clark assisted by the local nurse, Miss Eva Fortier, and a committee examined twenty-two babies, of which thirteen were found 100 percent perfect.

This was the first year the schools had had a Health Day Parade which is observed all over the country, May 1. Subscriptions were taken for the Drought Relief fund.

A stretcher was purchased this year for the public, in an emergency.

The Red Cross Courier has been renewed and the Public Health Magazine has been subscribed for.

Six representatives, including the nurse, attended the Regional meeting in Manchester, September 12. At the request of Mr. Pringle, Commissioner of Education, that the first day of the State Teachers' Convention be devoted to school nurses and that these nurses should be present, Miss Fortier and a representative of the nursing committee attended that session in Concord October 16.

Six Christmas bags were sent to the Veteran's Hospital.

Miss Fortier commenced her class in Home Hygiene in January, with thirteen pupils.

The committee, or the nurse would be very glad to receive any suggestion for the betterment of the service.

Respectfully submitted,

EVA N. FAY.

Mrs. Rose F. Holland,
Chairman of branch A. R. C.

LIBRARY REPORT

Hours open, per week,	21

Juvenile non-fiction,	4,370

Volumes added by gift,	322

Particularly gratifying is the increased circulation of non-fiction, for this is the standard by which a library is judged. Figures show a gain of thirty-three percent over last year's circulation of non-fiction. This increase is due largely to the Vacation Reading Club, formed in collaboration with the English department in the public schools, through which credit was given for a completed prescribed course. Sixty diplomas were awarded the first of September, highest honors being awarded to Evelyn Roberts, with a score of 650 points, indicating a report of fifty-seven non-fiction books.

Most satisfactory results are shown in a developed taste for this type of reading. The circulation of non-fiction gains, comparatively, even though the direct reward of tangible credit is no longer the incentive. Insofar as we have approached the accomplishment of directing reading to the entirely worthwhile type of book, we feel that we have directed our young readers toward a right and profitable use of their leisure time. This is our sole aim.

We are greatly indebted to Springfield Public Library for many of the books added by gift.

Respectfully submitted,

MARIAN FITZGERALD,

Librarian.

Winchester, N. H.

Dear Sir:

It is with pleasure that I render my fifth annual report as Headmaster of Hinsdale High School. The past year has been one of rather marked progress in certain lines. The economic condition of the community at the present time is partially responsible for a normal increase in enrollment. At the present time the register shows in the upper four classes a total of eighty-eight pupils distributed through the classes as follows:

Seniors:	Boys	4	Girls	7
Juniors:	Boys	13	Girls	16
Sophomores:	Boys	10	Girls	10
Freshmen:	Boys	16	Girls	12
Eighth Grade:	Boys	13	Girls	22
Seventh Grade:	Boys	21	Girls	8

These are distributed through our three curricula as follows:

Domestic Arts:	10	Commercial:	48
	Classical:	30

The progress of graduates from the various departments of the class of 1930 is as follows:

Commercial Curricula

E. W. Gould,	N. H. State University
O. B. Smith,	N. H. State University
Thelma Townsend,	Keene Normal School
Ernest Gillis,	Bay Path Institute
Marie Ammann	Stenographer—Robertson Bros.
Dorothy Ammann,	Unemployed
Lenard Waters,	Short order cook—restaurant
Sylvia Pickett,	Married
Shellis Watkins,	Unemployed
Dexter Royce,	Chauffeur—Allen's Transfer
Earl Royce,	Farm hand
Corrinne Stewart,	Cooley Dickinson Hospital
Eleanor Jeffords,	Colby School for girls
Sylvia Fletcher,	Bay Path Institute
Susie Pierson,	Brattleboro Memorial Hos.
Rose Golden,	Cooley Dickinson Hospital
Francis Mannis,	Laborer—Col. intentions 1931
Bernard Pelech,	Laborer—Col. intentions 1931

The progress of graduates from the various departments of the class of 1929 is as follows:

Domestic Arts Curricula

Florence Duggan	Waitress
Rose Helen Jeffords	Simmons College

Commercial Curricula

Mildred Rouillard,	Stenographer
Shirley Smith,	L. I. College Hospital
Wendell Gove,	Carpenter's Apprentice
Richard Smith,	Clerk

Classical Curricula

Greta Boardman,	Vermont State University

There is still a need of a Practical Arts curricula for certain individuals who are not adaptable to either of the three curricula which we offer. I feel that if possible we should open a temporary machine shop. It would be of great advantage to these people. With an increasing number of unemployed among the number of unskilled workers, it is a necessary function of the school to fit the pupils for life and to make a living.

A fair percentage of the people who are graduating from our present three curricula are not fitted for any definite work and therefore, they are unable to make a great deal of progress. If an individual is to put four years into an education with the anticipation that such an education will enable him or her to obtain a living, it is a fact that our system is to blame for not supplying the type of preparation actually needed.

Even under our present conditions, I feel that cooperation upon the part of parents with the school in the achievement of a higher scholastic standing as shown by the report card will bring a greater measure of success. It is my experience that those people who are most successful after graduation are those people who have achieved an average grade of above eighty-five, especially in the last two years of their high school work. We need to eliminate particularly the high school failure which is usually due to lack of interest or lack of ambition and rarely due to lack of ability. It seems that the time has come when our high school shall realize the fact long recognized by our business colleges and beginning to be recognized by our universities that the function of an educational institution shall be not only to educate but to offer an opportunity for the attainment of a satisfactory living by means of a student placement department. This can only be achieved through the cooperation of the school officials, the business men, the parents and the pupils themselves.

It is an increasing proposition as to what consists of an education. At the present time with shortened working days, with more leisure at the command of more people than has ever before been known, the function of an education cannot cease with the attainment of a wage. It seems necessary to teach not only how to get a living by how to live. In other words to enjoy and get the most out of their leisure time. For that reason, I am an advocate of extra curricula activities of the amusement type. Every man and woman at the present time must, in order to enjoy life, have a hobby, particularly of the right sort, making little difference whether it is the playing of a violin or whether it is participation in some way of an athletic sport, in so far as it offers a healthful recreation mentally and physically.

We are forced to realize that we must teach and appreciate something besides book knowledge. Facilities in Hinsdale are not great in such instruction, our school orchestra is a start, our limited athletic facilities offers a start, our limited dramatics is a start, but, I believe that these must be continually extended to reach more of the pupils and that public funds invested to such an end will repay in a more contented community.

I believe much of the progress of the past year has been due to a comparatively small turn over in the teaching force. A good teacher is a rare and difficult proposition to obtain. Every time a change of teachers takes place and a good one is exchanged for a new one, there is a high loss in efficiency, even though the new teacher be good. Conditions must be learned, individuals in the school of this size must be learned. In so far as possible, I believe that it is economy to retain our good teachers, even at a higher cost rather than to serve as a training school for inexperienced or untrained teachers.

I wish to thank the Superintendent, Board of Education, the teaching staff and people of the town for their co-operation during the past year.

Yours truly,

CLEON B. JOHNSON.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Board and Citizens of Hinsdale:

I have the honor to submit, herewith, my sixth annual report.

Building and Grounds. The repairs during the year represented no radical changes but consisted of general repairs and painting in and about all buildings in use. The toilet facilities in both of the central buildings were greatly improved by the installation of additional ventilating facilities. As contemplated in the budget of last year, the seventh grade room was equipped with modern furniture. This policy should be followed up this year with replacement of the seats in the High School.

I think attention should be given this year to the toilet facilities at our two rural schools. I would respectfully recommend the installation of chemical toilets in these schools, the expense be spread over two years, by equipping one of the schools with such equipment each year. I would also recommend the digging of wells on the grounds of both of these schools so that there might be available on the premises an ample supply of water not only for drinking purposes, but for sanitary and hygienic uses as well.

Teachers and Pupils. Relatively few changes are to be noted in the teaching staff. At the High School the only change was in the Home Economics Department, where Miss Dorothy Frost of Haverhill, Mass., who served as substitute for the last quarter last year, received a regular appointment. Miss Frost is a graduate of Keene Normal School, from the 4-year Home Economics Curriculum.

In the graded schools, but one change was necessary, Miss Gladys Swain for nearly two years in charge of Grade VI, resigned to accept a more lucrative position in Greenfield, Mass. The vacancy was admirably filled by the appointment of Miss Gladys MacNabb of Cambridge, Mass., a graduate of Plymouth Normal School.

It was necessary, however, to recruit new teachers for both of our rural schools. Matrimony deprived us of the services of Miss Rosetta Brown at the Monument School, while Miss Marion Mudgett of the Plains School resigned to accept another position. The Board elected Miss Jennie Yaloff of Laconia to succeed Miss Brown, and Miss Helene Piper of Franklin to succeed Miss Mudgett. Both young ladies are graduates of the Plymouth Normal School.

For several years your Headmaster and Superintendent have felt the need of a broader range in the curricula in our High School. It has seemed to us that a thorough-going vocational curriculum for boys was an imperative need, which would increase the curricula from three to four and offering a choice of three to both boys and girls. In view of this need the School Board is asking the citizens of Hinsdale to consider this problem by an appropriate article in the Warrant.

In addition to the added appropriation necessary, the plan requires for its consummation two important factors, first, a thoroughly trained teacher for the work, and second an odditional room for the shop that shall provide at least a space of 24x36 ft. We are very fortunate in the first requisite, because we already have on our staff Mr. Lucian Lerandeau who especially trained to assume responsibility for a Mechanic Arts course. But to provide the additional shop space it would be necessary to rent a suitable space in some building not too remote from the High School building. Such a plan would give us the present manual training room for the work of the other departments of the High School which they sorely need. The completion of the plan would mean eventually an additional assistant on the high school staff. The appropriation for equipment would be spread over a period of four years and I am of the impression that $1,500 exclusive of rent would be adequate, for the final consummation of the plan. I trust the citizens of Hinsdale will give careful and thoughtful consideration to this problem.

I wish again to express my grateful appreciation to the School Board, to teachers and pupils, and citizens of Hinsdale for their continued interest, support and co-operation in the work of our schools.

Respectfully submitted,
WESLEY H. DOUGLASS,
Superintendent of Schools.
